Bid means any response to a solicitation, including a proposal under a negotiated acquisition. See the definition of "offer" at 2.101.

Bid guarantee means a form of security assuring that the bidder-

1. Will not withdraw a bid within the period specified for acceptance; and

Bond means a written instrument executed by a bidder or contractor (the "principal"), and a second party (the "surety" or "sureties") (except as provided in 28.204), to assure fulfillment of the principal’s obligations to a third party (the "obligee" or "Government"), identified in the bond. If the principal’s obligations are not met, the bond assures payment, to the extent stipulated, of any loss sustained by the obligee. The types of bonds and related documents are as follows:

1. An advance payment bond secures fulfillment of the contractor’s obligations under an advance payment provision.

4. A patent infringement bond secures fulfillment of the contractor’s obligations under a patent provision.
5. A payment bond assures payments as required by law to all persons supplying labor or material in the prosecution of the work provided for in the contract.
6. A performance bond secures performance and fulfillment of the contractor’s obligations under the contract.

Consent of surety means an acknowledgment by a surety that its bond given in connection with a contract continues to apply to the contract as modified.
Penal sum or "penal amount" means the amount of money specified in a bond (or a percentage of the bid price in a bid bond) as the maximum payment for which the surety is obligated or the amount of security required to be pledged to the Government in lieu of a corporate or individual surety for the bond.
