2845.105 Contractors' property management system compliance.

The contractor's records for Government-furnished property may be kept as a separate account in the bureau's internal property management system, in which case the contracting officer or formally designated property administrator shall serve as custodian of the account.

Parent topic: Subpart 2845.1—General