(a) In May 1962, the Guiding Principles for Federal Architecture report emphasized that the design of new buildings should provide visual testimony to the dignity, enterprise, vigor, and stability of the American Government. The report also stated that where appropriate, fine art should be incorporated in the designs of Federal buildings, with emphasis on the work of living American artists.

(b) In January 1963, GSA established the AiA Program.

(c) In November 2005, 41 CFR Part 102-77 Art-In-Architecture was published requiring Federal agencies to incorporate fine arts as an integral part of the total building concept when designing new Federal buildings, and when making substantial repairs and alterations to existing Federal buildings, as appropriate.

(d) In July 2020, Section 4(d) of E.O. 13934, Building and Rebuilding Monuments to American Heroes, directed agencies to prioritize the commission of works of art that portray historically significant Americans or events of American historical significance or illustrate the ideals upon which our nation was founded.
